

Bat'ya, Singer, Shakes Roof at Pier Playhouse

"Portraits of Love," an unusual program of dancing and song, featuring the world-famous, Bat'Ya, from Israel, is a rare evening of entertainment presented at the South Bay's Hermosa Pier Playhouse.

With a vocal range of four octaves, and singing in seven languages, Bat'Ya and her international troupe present a rousing performance of folk songs, ranging from the melancholy to foot-stomping hilarity.

Seen nationally by American audiences last winter on the Ed Sullivan show, Bat'Ya has given sell-out concerts throughout the entire country, according to Robert Chapling and Rick Winter, Pier Playhouse producers.

The show will be presented tonight, Friday, and Saturday evenings. Tickets for the special program are $2 for adults and $1.25 for youngsters. High school and college students are offered special admission for $1.25.

The next show at the Playhouse will be "The Immoralists," the producers announced.

Household Rug Cleaners

Mrs. Henry Rasmussen, Southern California housewife

"WE LOOKED at a lot of houses and own-your-own apartments and found we could buy all the extra advantages offered by the Medallion Award for the price we wanted to pay. Now, we have extra conveniences everywhere. Built-in appliances make this kitchen compact and easy to work in. And flameless electric cooking is so cool and clean that the time I spend in the kitchen is more pleasant.

"Every room has so many appliance outlets, too. As a result, I can put my furniture in almost any arrangement and be able to plug in lamps, TV, a record player or whatever I want where I want it. I never dreamed a home could be so convenient to live in."

Whether you prefer a house—or an apartment like the Rasmussens—you'll enjoy the best of modern living along with lasting value if the home you buy bears the Medallion.

FREE 12x15 OVAL BRAIDED RUG?

NO, EVEN WARD-RICHARDS CAN NOT GIVE AWAY THIS BEAUTIFUL RUG. But we can offer it to you at a price you cannot beat anywhere.

Actually you are getting two rugs for the price of one when you put this one down on your floor. You see it is completely reversible. Flop it end to end or bottom to top any way you put it, it will look fine. This means you can turn it around so it will never show wear even in the traffic areas. And speaking of wear this rug will really take it. It is woven of a durable wool blend in an interlocking knit weave that will not unravel or break apart as less expensive braids do. This means more wearing power and less work to keep clean.

The color is perfect where ever you want to put it. Basically brown and beige with accent colors that blend in to form a combination that cannot be topped.

So what else do you need to know to convince you that this is the rug you need for the living room or den or perhaps the bedroom? Oh, that's right I forgot to tell you the price: $77.50. That's right only $77.50.

So, don't just sit there reading this ad—Get up—Go out and get in the car. (No, don't take time to change into anything fancy; just come the way you are.)—and come on down to Ward-Richards. We have plenty of Free Browsing, Free Coffee, and Free Time, and none of our sales force is on commission so you won't be pestered all the time you are looking. Be sure to bring the kids along and let them color in the Kiddie Corral while you are browsing.

Now remember that's a 12'x15' oval knit braided, fully reversible colonial rug for $77.50.

P.S. If a 12'x15' size is too big for your room or you need a mess of smaller rugs to go along with your new 12'x15' here are the prices of the rest of the sizes we have.
